New college students may be required during their first semester to participate in GEN 1070, First Year Success Seminar, a one credit hour course. See a Tri-C Counselor for details.

^ This course is not required for the AAS degree at Tri-C, but is recommended to be taken before transferring. This course may not be eligible for financial aid, please consult a campus financial aid office for details.

This course may be utilized to satisfy a CJ xxxx requirement with the completion of a waiver form obtained from the Tri-C Associate Dean.

Courses marked with * will fulfill the Lower-Level Major Elective (LLME) for the Criminal Justice AAS degree. Students must complete three (3) total LLME.

Courses listed may be taken at any point during a student's progression toward this degree. This includes during the summer transitioning between Cuyahoga Community College and Potomac State College, as well as via approved equivalents at Potomac State. Students should consult with academic advising to determine when completion of these courses is best suited for them.

In the above agreement, students will need to complete the following during their time at Potomac State:

Upper-Level Major Electives (Select four) – 12 credits:

- CJ 301, CJ 302, CJ 316, CJ 324, CJ 325, CJ 415 CJ 461, CJ 493.

Students transferring to West Virginia University with an Associate of Arts, Associate of Applied Science, or Associate of Science degree will have satisfied the General Education Foundation requirements at WVU.

Students transferring into the Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.S) program can anticipate completing additional required lower-level A.A.S courses during their B.A.S degree pursuits. Students can substitute online upper-level elective courses to complete those lower-level requirements.

Students who have questions regarding this articulation agreement or the transferability of coursework may contact the WVU Office of the University Registrar. All other questions should be directed to the PSC Office of Enrollment Services (304-788-6820).

The above transfer articulation of credit between West Virginia University and Cuyahoga Community College, is approved by the Dean, or the Dean's designee, and effective the date of the signature.
