- Editing and Publishing
- Creative Writing & Narrative Strategies
- Literacy and Language

Students transferring to West Virginia University with an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree will have satisfied the General Education Foundation requirements at WVU.

Students completing degrees in WVU's Eberly College of Arts and Sciences are encouraged to work with their advisors to integrate completion of an academic minor or minors into their programs of study, to the degree allowed within elective hours. WVU offers over 100 minors that complement major fields of study, build on students' unique interests, expand perspectives, and broaden skills. See 000<http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors/#minorsofferedtext> for a list of available minors.

Students who have questions regarding this articulation agreement or the transferability of coursework may contact the WVU Office of the University Registrar. All other questions should be directed to the WVU Office of Admissions.

The above transfer articulation of credit between West Virginia University and Washington State College of Ohio, is approved by the Dean, or the Dean's designee, and effective the date of the signature.
