Students transferring to West Virginia University under this Articulation Agreement will be accepted into the Anthropology program despite lacking the ANTH 105 requirement. Students will need to earn at least a C- in SSC 105 (SOC 101).

Students completing degrees in WVU's Eberly College of Arts and Sciences are encouraged to work with their advisors to integrate completion of an academic minor or minors into their programs of study, to the degree allowed within elective hours. WVU offers over 100 minors that complement major fields of study, build on students' unique interests, expand perspectives, and broaden skills. See <http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors/#minorsofferedtext> for a list of available minors. Students may begin completion of a minor by utilizing elective credit to take courses at Lackawanna College equivalent to minor required courses at WVU.

Students transferring to West Virginia University with an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree will have satisfied the General Education Foundation requirements at WVU.

Students who have questions about admission into their intended program, GEF requirements, minors, or any other issue relating to academics at West Virginia University should contact the Office of Undergraduate Education at WVU.

The above transfer articulation of credit between West Virginia University and Lackawanna College, is approved by the Dean, or the Dean's designee, and effective the date of the signature.
