Students must have a GPA of 2.0 in all ENGL courses to be admitted to the English program upon transferring to West Virginia University.

*Students who take ENG 220 (ENGL 285) or ENG 240 (ENGL 254) will have completed the 200-level ENGL Gender/Multicultural/Transnational requirement. Students who do not will need to take it during their time at WVU.

Students need to choose two of the four listed literature options to satisfy the English program's Historical Breadth requirement: ENGL 241, ENGL 242, ENGL 261, or ENGL 262.

Students must select an Area of Emphasis during their time at WVU. Students can select from the following:

- Creative Writing
- Literary and Cultural Studies
- Professional Writing and Editing (PWE)

Students completing degrees in WVU's Eberly College of Arts and Sciences are encouraged to work with their advisors to integrate completion of an academic minor or minors into their programs of study, to the degree allowed within elective hours. WVU offers over 100 minors that complement major fields of study, build on students' unique interests, expand perspectives, and broaden skills. See <http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors/#minorsofferedtext> for a list of available minors.

Students may begin completion of a minor by utilizing elective credit to take courses at Lackawanna College equivalent to minor required courses at WVU.

Students transferring to West Virginia University with an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree will have satisfied the General Education Foundation requirements at WVU.

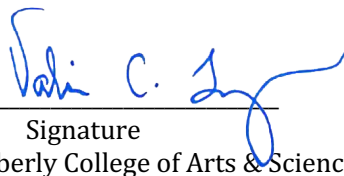

Students who have questions about admission into their intended program, GEF requirements, minors, or any other issue relating to academics at West Virginia University should contact the Office of Undergraduate Education at WVU.

The above transfer articulation of credit between West Virginia University and Lackawanna College, is approved by the Dean, or the Dean's designee, and effective the date of the signature.
